Re: FOIA-2019-00964

Dear Ms. Best:

This is in response to your request dated June 3, 2019 under the Freedom of Information Act seeking access to emails sent “to or from either the ‘director’s’ office (or equivalent) as well as their chief of staff . . . and ‘executive director’ containing the following . . . words between January 01, 2018 and June 10, 2019:

| 16. jewish | 33. congress | 50. magic” |
| 17. jew | 34. subpoena | |

For the reasons outlined below, we are closing your request as an improper FOIA request.

Although the threshold for a proper request is that it must “enable[] a professional agency employee familiar with the subject area to locate the record with a reasonable amount of effort,” (see Judicial Watch v. Exp.-Imp. Bank, 108 F. Supp. 2d 19, 27 (D.D.C. 2000)) a request may nonetheless fail to reasonably describe the records sought if the request is “so broad as to impose an unreasonable burden upon the agency.” See Nat’l Sec. Counselors v. CIA, 960 F. Supp. 2d 101, 147 (D.D.C. 2013) (quoting Am. Fed’n of Gov’t Emps., Local 2782 v. U.S. Dept. of Commerce, 907 F.2d 203, 209 (D.C. Cir. 1990)). Overbroad and unreasonably burdensome requests are invalid because “FOIA was not intended to reduce government agencies to full-time investigators on behalf of requesters.” Assassination Archives & Research Ctr., Inc. v. CIA, 720 F. Supp. 217, 219 (D.D.C. 1989).

Additionally, the FOIA is not intended to allow requesters to conduct a “fishing expedition” through agency files. Dale v. IRS, 238 F. Supp. 2d 99, 104-05 (D.D.C. 2002). This limitation protects the ability of federal agencies to prioritize their resources notwithstanding any obligation to provide access to records under FOIA. Int’l Counsel Bureau v. U.S. Dep’t of Def., 723 F. Supp. 2d 54, 59–60 (D.D.C. 2010). Ultimately, “[a]n agency need not honor a request that requires ‘an unreasonably burdensome search.’” AFGE, Local 2782 v. U.S. Dep’t of Commerce, 907 F.2d 203, 209 (D.C. Cir. 1990) (citation omitted). Accordingly, your request has been closed. Closure of this request does not preclude you from addressing its deficiencies and submitting another request.

Your request did not indicate an agreement to pay any fees associated with the processing of your request. However, the Commission’s fee regulations specify that fees less than $25 will be waived. See 16 C.F.R. § 4.8(b)(4). Because the fees associated with the processing of your request did not exceed $25, we have processed your request free of charge. In the future, please provide a fee agreement to facilitate the processing of your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response to your request, you may appeal by writing to Freedom of Information Act Appeal, Office of the General Counsel, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580, or via email at FOIAAppeal@ftc.gov, within 90 days of the date of this letter. Please enclose a copy of your original request and a copy of this response.

You also may seek dispute resolution services from the FTC FOIA Public Liaison Richard Gold via telephone at 202-326-3355 or via e-mail at rgold@ftc.gov; or from the Office of Government Information Services via email at ogis@nara.gov, via fax at 202-741-5769, or via mail at Office of Government Information Services (OGIS), National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road, College Park, MD 20740.

If you have any questions about the way we are handling your request or about the FOIA regulations or procedures, please contact Kamay Lafalaise at 202-326-3780.

Sincerely,
